BLUES JAM NIGHT - 17TH JULY

On the 17th of July, 'Blues' fans turned out in force to the West Coast Blues Club Jam night at the Rockingham Rams Football Club.

The night started with the Club House band, 'Loaded Denim' and was followed by 'Jammers' from all over Australia, including 'The Aces' (Noona Stace and Harry Lindsay) from Melbourne. As 'The Aces' they have busked the Melbourne city streets - Harry has played for bands such as 'The Blue Sheiks' and 'Medicine Hat' (a country Blues Band). We are delighted that they will still be here to perform at our Birthday Bash on the 7th August.

Other featured bands lining up to play on the night, included dynamite Perth Band 'Brown Dog' - Their eight piece band were a real crowd pleaser attracting a packed dance floor.

Local lads 'Sonic' were brilliant, playing all the old classic rock tunes that everybody knew and loved.

Finishing the night was a brilliant tribute to one of WA's rock blues legends Paul Felton, by 'Loaded Denim' playing 'Knocking on Heavens Door', which was on Paul Felton's last produced Cd.

Paul was well known at the Blues Club as being the great guitarist from the Jets, and had sadly just passed away from Cancer.
